NEW SERIES-VOL. 2. NO. 1.

LANCASTER, OHIO,

DAY MORNING, MAY 11, 1854

WHOLE NO 1494

Ghe Lancuster Tuzette.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING. T. S. SLAUGHTER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS-$1,50 per annum in advance. TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Avery is only 26 years of age, a native of Springfield, Massachusetts, of respectable parentage, and highly intelligent. He begaged passage on the Yankee Blade, as stated above. Consequently, judgment brother and sister, he agreeing to work his was given for the defendant."

The particular and the following of Columbus street. Consequently, judgment of the particular and the following of Columbus street. Consequently, judgment was given for the defendant."

Mr. Boune remarked that the argument of wer for yourselves: passage out. She was furnished, through the second cabin, with another female. This stitution and laws?"—Advertiser. removed her considerably from the presence of her lover, who worked on the for-ward deck; and she, taking advantage of her position, began to flirt with the young men on board, which, when the knowel-men on board, which, when the knowel-th carrel of Avery, rep-he drew from a belt in his side a ten-inch bowie knife, with which he stabbed her in the right breast, severing one of the large arteries, the knife passing through her back. Immeddiately after committing this dreadful deed he snapped a pistol twice at his own breast but finding it would not go off, he cut a deep and severe gash in his throat, then rushing forward to where she had fallen and the passengers and others began to marble cheeks, saying, 'I loved that girl, but you cabin passengers done this.

This was the most heart-rending scene the writer ever witnessed. There lay the poor, mangled body of the unfortunate girl; over her bent her equally unfortunate though guilty lover, uttering the most lament to her, while the blood came streaming from his throat. Every one expected to see him momentarily expire; he did not die, however, as the surgeon succeeded in running through forty years. sewing up his wound, and he is now nearly recovered. He had a preliminary examinmust make it reel and stagger.

SLAVERY IN VIRGINIA .- The Wheeling Gazette is fighting manfully for the right, against great odds we admit, but the ponderous blows Wharron gives slavery,

In speaking of slavery, the Gazette says: "This institution was imposed upon us when we were the subjects of a foreign tyrant for the purpose of enriching his cof-fers, with no thought or fear that these colfers, with no thought or fear that these colonies could become free and republican. law agent of the United States before the schooner Union, of Providence town, Of the work which, two years ago, I esti-When this country achieved its independ- U. S. Land Commission in California, while cruising off that port on Friday last ence the institution had become so inter- whose death at San Francisco we recordwoven with the domestic and social rela- ed yesterday, was 54 years of age, and They were both killed by bomblances. tions of the Southern States that it could leaves a wife and four children in Washnot then be removed; but they regarded it ington, D. C. He was a man of great inas an evil that they would prepare to rid dustry and varied attainments. He was by trade, was shot dead in a bar-room at themselves of as fast as possible. Has it employed for many years in Washington Savanah, on Sunday night. A man namdone any good since then? Have the as a government translator, and his thor-States in which it existed prospered, grown ough knowledge of history and statistics ed Roberts, charged with the deed, has been in strength, numbers, intelligence, wealth were often called into service by the secre-arrested. or the happiness, in any way, of the great taries and high officials. He was the aubody of the people, as rapidly as those thor of "A History of Oregon and Califor-where it does not exist? Oh, no. The nia," a valuable octavo; and he had nearly co filed in the StateDepartment is, exclusive population is sparce where slavery is; in completed another work, a History of the Virginia all complain of the want of comforts, the land has become impoverished, He was a native of Richmond Va. He died and the population retrograding. Does slavery, then, do us any good? Does it not work evils, mar greater than any good will let us know all about it soon.—N. Y.Er. that can result from it? If the evil can be were striding through our principle streets ness as the army in Flanders were to swearremoved, is there any reason why it should on Saturday morning. They are the chiefs ing. not be gotten rid of by some means.

Оню.—A bill has passed both branchs of the Legislature and become a law, re- Vanderalice, and on their way to Washingstricting the liability of stockholders in business corporations to an amount equal in of their land to the United states. The addition to their stock. Under the law before existing, stockholders were individually liable for the whole amount of the com- ritory. - Cin. Com. pany's indebtedness, which operated in pany's indebtedness, which operated in many cases to deter people from taking many cases to deter people from taking decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday morn-decided that the character of Brough's Terted suicide in Zanesville, on Monday mo stock in such companies, and has thus tended to depress the stocks.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—We find in the | For The Cincinnatti, Wilmington and Friday

had spoken to him about paying the note, and he told them he could not pay it then, but it was good, and that they should not be uneasy about it. Their agent, who actbe uneasy about it. Their agent, who acted for them, said on his testimony—"I had no uneasiness about the note at all, because I was satisfied the endorser was good, and it was satisfied to matter of ranch imtherefore it was not a matter of much importance, and it lay; we could not get the money from Davis." It was decided that, row—enabling the ditizens of Cincinnati Thursday Evening. May 4, 1854

MURRIER OF A FRAME ON BOARD THE

STEAMER YANKE BLADE.—A female named Susan Russell was killed by her lover, Edward H. Avery, on board the steamship Yankee Blade, on her passage from New Yankee Blade, on her passage from New Voice to Panama. He was ardently attached to her, and jealous of the attention of it. They delayed making a demand un-ner: By the Democratic party in general who profess one thing and violate the law of veracity by doing another; and so on, as long as the moral law, without diminution of blackness or mittigation of moral turpitude. - Scioto Gazette.

Axswen:-Govenor Medill and his Sec- at 8 o'clock at night.

drew a razor from his pocket, with which he cut a deep and severe gash in his throat, ment, the treaties recently negotiated in the distance of the following two sessions of 1852 and 1853, the distance of the followi ment, the treaties recently negotiated in him a call. Washington by Col. MANYPENNY, the comcollect, he cried, Stand back, gentlemen- missioner of Indian Affairs, with the Omastand back, I did it, then falling beside the ahs, and the confederate tribes of Ottoe and has removed his shoe store to the room for- be required, and in my report at the close dead body, he wept over it, and kissed the Missouri Indians, who inhabit the northern merly occupied by Jno. McElror, a few ted States all their lands, the President se- ity. lecting a place for their future homes, to which they are to remove as soon as the treary provision made. In consideration the mentable expressions of his fervent attach- United States pays to the Ottoes and Mis-

TREATY WITH NICARAGUA.—The Wash- 1 cent. ation before the American Consul at Rio ington correspondent of the New York Jour-Janeiro, who ordered him on to San Fran- nal of Commerce states that Mr. Borland. cisco for trial. Since the sad occurrence he our Minister in Central America has sent has become quite patient, and awaits his home a Treaty, by the hands of the Secretrial with considerable fortitude. The poor tary of the Legation, Mr. Beelan, made fellow has a mother living in Norwich co., with Nicaragua. The Treaty provides that congregation that "he liked to see them laugh; Order, system and subordination soon came upon whom this blow will fall very heavily, the United States shall recognize as establish- he did not think there was any more harm to an end. Workmen sometimes received when she learns the particulars of the sad ed, the boundaries of Nicaragua, and in- in smiling in church than in one's own pri- directions from the President of the Board, cludes the Mosquito country within her vate parlor." limits. The United States Government is thus made to guaranty the disputed claim ance of the policy adopted by Mr. Squier, ed, if not destroyed. while he was Minister to Nicaragua.

Hon. Robert Greenhow, associate and the head men of the Kickapoe. Sac and Foxes of Missouri and Iowa tribes of Indians. They were in charge of Major D. the third regiment of Illinois volunteers in erly to complete the work.

re Haute and St. Louis railroad is legal.

New York Journal of Commerce the report Zanesville Railroad is finished now and in of a case of importance to business men operation from Lancaster to Cincinnati enerally:

This road was commenced, has progressed, the letter of and is destined to be finished with greater into the Leginote dated February 7, 1851, for 81500, payable on demand, with interest. The maker failed in November, 1851, and a vegr or two seemingly, since we travelled in the Legisland of which we have knowledge. It is but a tax-payers of vegr or two seemingly, since we travelled month before that, was known by the year or two, seemingly, since we travelled plaintiff to be in failing circumstances; and between two and four months before they mid-summer, when it was emphatically a

Mr. SHEFFER in relation to the time the ordin. Answerep .- "Who is it that stands out ance was passed was not wise, and that an ance passed at 2 o'clock in the afternoon as at 8 o'clock at night

Returned,-We ask pardon for not noticing at an earlier date, the return from Cal-building.

ately suspected. The family, at last accounts, were in a precarious condition.

Indian treaties Ratified.—The United keeps on hand an extensive assortment, fin-

Our young firiend, Noble Robinson, portion of the territory of Nebraska. By doors West of the Hocking Valley Bank .-these treaties the Indians code to the Uni- His stock is large and of the very best qual-

TURKS ISLAND .- Advices from turks Isty stipulations are fulfilled and the necessary to have and to April 8, state that the export of Salt one general superintendent over all the desourias $40,000 in installments running and the rakings for the same period to about through thirty-eight years, and to 0- 22,000 bushels; so that the present stock on building, as well as the superintendent of mahas $840,000 to be paid in installments hand may be put down at above 70,000 bu. the stone quarry, one whose energy, intelli-

LAUGHING IN CHURCH .- The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, as we learn from a New York paper, a few Sabbaths gince told his

FROST IN FLORIDA. - There was a severe of Nicaragua, to the country of the Mosqui-to Indians. The object of this treaty is of hostile position towards the Government of and it is thought that the growing Sea-Is-Great Britain on this question, in pursu-land cotton crop has been seriously affect. The result of this change of system has CAPTURE OF TWO WHALES .- The succeeded in capturing two in-back whales.

AT Lawrence Richardson, a carpenter

the Mexican war, is dead.

The postoffice at Jackson, Miss, was its former clerk, who is under arrest.

A Shoemaker, named Wetlock, commiting, by shooting himself with a pistol.

May 5, 1854. H. WEST-Tax-Pay-the letter of the legis and th

Springfield, Massachusetts, of respectable parentage, and highly intelligent. He became acquainted with the female, who was came acquainted with the female, who was come acquainted of might who have the new State House under their supports of the public money who have the new State House under their supports of the public money who have the new State House under their supports of the public money who have the new State House under their supports of the public money who have the new State House under their supports of the public money who have the new State House under their supports of the public money who have the new State House under their supports of the public money who have the new State House under their supports of the public money who have the new State House under their supports of the public money who have the new State House under their supports of the public money who have the new State House under their supports of the public money who have the new State House under the supports of the public money who have the new State House under frail, but young and handsome, at Worcestion of the maker, as to an ordinary note ter, Mass., and proposed to take her to payable on demand. It cannot be inforred, ter, Mass., and proposed to take her to neither case, that a delay is intended to be allowed under such circumstances as are relation to the paving of Columbus street. COLUMBUS, April 18, 1854. Gentlemen.—When you expressed a the kindness of the captain, with a berth in in this State in open rebellion to the Con- error was as likely to occur in an ordin-intention of the new Commissioners to per-year exactly ant 2 ES GEO. L. ECKERT'S Furniture rooms are well filled with a choice variety of the year 1851, the work was in the most comvery best quality of furniture. He always plete condition for its most rapid and economical prosecution, and I expected during work, (except the terrace,) and to put the permanent roof on the building. To accomplish this I stated that $250,000 would of the year 1851, recommended that not less than that amount should be asked of the General Assembly, which amount has since been appropriated.

The present Commissioners on coming into the office, in addition to the architect for the last week amounts to 11,892 bushels partments." (see report 1852.) It was next thought necessary to remove, with one Price 20 cents, and falling. Export duty gence and knowledge of the courses of stone, from which I wished to have the most important blocks quarried, rendered invaluable. These men, familiar with the work under their charge, have suddenly to give place to new hands, some unqualified, and some unwilling to perform their duties .and sometimes from the architect. Of those given by me, some were obeyed, some were disregarded, and some were countermandcourse, to place the U. S. Government in a vicinity of Newmansville ice was formed, work, without which no architect can have been to produce delay, to cause useless expense, and seriously to affect the proper construction of the house, in all of which is the cupola is not begun.

course, attribute all defects which the ined.' House may be found to have, on its completion, and it is he who will be censured cy, 'for I am pleased with his company, and for any failure that may take place from in- I believe that he is a christian.' attention to the nature of materials, or neg- Mother is afraid that he will run off with lect of the proper precautions to prevent our little beauty, said Henry, laughing. their speedy decay. I can not, therefore, No, I do not believe that Lucy would ner at variance with my own judgment, and is transformed into an angel of light; therewhich I know must eventually bring disfore, we should ever be on our guard lest credit on every one connected with the we should be deceived by shining colors. in the Baltic are as much given to drunken- house. For my own protection, therefore, It is now nearly a year since our first acstrances have been unavailing, and I find myself without the confidence and co-opera-S. D. Marshall, who was major of tion of the board, I can no longer hope prop- man was again seated with the little family

I am, very respectfully, W. RUSSEL WEST.

The real name of the murderer of Beebe is somewhat uncertain. He has that he was in this house.' alias Jones, -so says the Statesman.

THE WHEEL OF FORTUNE

'Mr. Martin pays me five dollars per month for doing chores about the shop.'

we all can earn enough to purchase fuel and with grief and sorrow. provisions sufficient for our comfort.

your mother was taken sick?

mit me to carry out my plans in such a country eighteen month, and last spring he for you.' children-having the rooms we now occu- her mother cordially welcomed Mr. Bentley when a loud tap was heard at the outer door, and in a moment more the stranger stood before them.

'Mother this is the gentleman who gave me the money to pay the rent,' said Henry at genter we find the following: the same time handing him a chair. 'Thank you,' said the stranger; 'I have

'Most certainly?' said Mrs. Willard, we will do everything in our power to recompense you for the kindness you have shown shall send the work when it is done?"

here and get them-good night my friend, I hope to find your health much improved when I call again.' of provisions was brought to the door, di- his own country the benefit of the discovrected to Mrs. Willard-and when she ques- ery. tioned the boy that brought them, his only answer was-they're given to you by a this gentleman was received at the minisfriend.'

gave her a dollar. We cannot take this money,' said Mrs.

Willard, 'you have been so kind to us.' 'Take it, my good woman-it will pay frequent visitor. He would often spend a whole evening in teaching Henry and Lucy lessons in arithmetic and grammer, which they had not previously had a chance to

'My dear children,' said Mrs. Willard, mated would be completed at this time, the one evening after the stranger had left them, Eastern portico and pediment are not yet 'I am sorry that so much of your happiness completed, the third floor is not yet arched, depends upon the visits of one we do not To incompetence or negligence on the name-and I sometimes fear that his inpart of the architect, the public will, of tentions are not so honest as we have imag-

engaged in conversation, when the land The Commissioners of the new State if his son had been there that evening. 'He had not-I never saw your son to my knowledge,' said Mrs. Willard.

'A friend told me not five minutes since aware that my name is Bentley.'

He wished her good night, saying that he West—Tex-Pay—
We publish below of a January, that a poor pale-faced, boy entered the counting-room of a wealthy merchant, and handed him a pote.

The low room of the counting room of a wealthy merchant, and handed him a pote.

The low room of the counting room of a wealthy merchant, and handed him a pote.

and Charles obtained a situation in a whole-sale establishment, where he spent eighteen to guide themselves. The best of them are his father or any of the family.

When they entered the house, Lucy and mother was sick, and could not pay him 85 was thus announced:

'My name is of little consequence, and out of water by the aid of an eclectric wire, when the handkerchiefs are done I will call is a Frenchman; and when he communicated his invention to the Russian government for a cosideration, he expressly stipulated that in case of war between France Every day for two weeks a small basket and Russia, he should be at liberty to give

It is further reported that on Friday last try of marine, and, in the presence of M. Three weeks had passed and their dream Ducos and a board of naval officers, exwas broken by the entrance of the stranger., plained the fearful means of destruction When Lucy handed him the handkerchiefs which he claims to have originated. The board, incredulous at first, closely examined the matter, and in the end were very much struck by the demonstration, and not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit, a little alarmed. Sir Charles Nepier, on saith the Lord of Host. your week's rent; and I have some shirts the admission of the inventor, was already JAPAN .- "Japan is open to the comthat I would like you to make if you are prepared for what he might have to encoun-merce of the world, "is the word that comes ntely sent off to warn Admiral Parseval one hand, and from California on the oth-On the following day he brought the shirts, and from that time forth he became a Deschenes. I give the story as I have er—for it would appear a knowledge of the course all accounts of mysterious 'long points, at about one and the same time.-

Gov. Medill has appointed James W. Taylor, of Sandusky City—once famil-sion" upon the Japanese, which would in all: iarly known as "Signal Taylor"-to the of- probability, result in greatadvantages to the fice of State Librarian. Mr. Taylor is a commerce of the world. and to-day we know; it is strange that we cannot learn his name—and I sometimes fear that his innament his official station. The Sandusky that statement in its most important par-Register very properly says:

We can heartily endorse the opinion of rances that the ports of a country hitherto Mr. Barney, and to congratulate the Exec- a terra incognito to all the rest of the world utive on securing so worthy an officer .- it may be said, are in the course of another Mr. Taylor is a gentleman of decided liter- 12 months to be thrown open to all nations. ary taste, and will render the State Library This statement is possibly true, but as something more than a mere depository for it is the proclamation of a fact which the musty documents, and its rooms agreeable public mind neither here no. in England,

Letters from Constantinople allude imagine it will be received with doubts. to an Asiatic warrior-woman-Fatime Han- We freely confess ours. Time however, with six hundred horsemen as her suit. She a man, thousands of people flocked to have a view of her, especialy woman. The Turkish females are quite taken aghast at catch a glimpso of this adventurous old left it "handy." A few mornings after-dame, as she cantered past them. "Mas-hallah! what a woman."

SABBATH READING

THE EARLY TREMPHS OF CHRIST

months without exchanging a word with poor, weak, illiterate fishermen. They were One morning a clerk informed him that the soldiers every one of them forsook him with grief and sorrow.

'But how did you pay your rent before bur mother was taken sick?'

'My father was a mason by trade, and he eight describing. I possess are the first sale and sorrow.

We father was a mason by trade, and he eight describing. I possess are the first sale and sorrow.

We father was a mason by trade, and he eight describing. I possess are the first sale and sorrow.

We father was a mason by trade, and he eight describing. I possess are the first sale and sorrow.

We father was a mason by trade, and he eight describing a large sale and sorrow.

Charles, you are my son, and I know of no one more worthy my confidence. I came here to ask your advice; my creditors have solve the first sale and sorrow.

'My father was a mason by trade, and he done a job of work for Mr. Bentley, and in lieu of money, he took a receipt for six here to ask your savice; my creators have seized everything I possess, even the furniture in my house, and I know not what to do or where to go.'

Remember how slow they as Delieve, how dependent upon Lord Jesus—how much discouraged they were when he was laid in the tomb, 'My father was a mason of done a job of work for Mr. Bentley, and in lieu of money, he took a receipt for six month's rent.'

'Be composed, father, I will do all I can for your comfort, and the restoration of your property. Go home with me and get of your property. Go home with me and get of your property. The diagram of the world the truth of the glorious gospel?'

Better ask, what did they do? A day or after this, there was an excitement and the second they were when he was man in the world the truth of the glorious gospel?

Better ask, what did they do? A day or after this, there was an excitement and the second they were when he was man in the world the truth of the glorious gospel?'

mong them. Something strange had hapmen on board, which, when the knoweledge thereof came to the ears of Avery, rendered him exceedingly jealous, and finally the acted in such a manner as to induce

The property of the control of the work, and the company with Samuel Crim with a fine should have the supervision of the work, and the company with Samuel Crim with a fine should have the supervision of the work, and the company with Samuel Crim with a fine should have the supervision of the work, and the company with Samuel Crim with a fine should have the supervision of the work, and the company with Samuel Crim with a fine should have the supervision of the work, and the company with Samuel Crim with a fine should have the supervision of the work, and the company with Samuel Crim with a fine should have the supervision of the work, and the company with Samuel Crim with a fine should have the supervision of the work, and the company with Samuel Crim with a fine should have the supervision of the work, and the company with Samuel Crim with a fine should have the supervision of the work, and the company with Samuel Crim with a fine should have the supervision of the work.

The property is a company with Samuel Crim with a fine should have the supervision of the work. Something strange had hapto their secret most and the company with Samuel Crim with a fine should have the supervision of the work. Something the rooms we now occuto their secret most and the company with Samuel Crim with the mother cordially welcomed Mr. Bentley
who left this city upwards of a year ago
in company with Samuel Crim with the mother cordially welcomed Mr. Bentley
who left this city upwards of a year ago
in company with Samuel Crim with the work of the work of the work of the work of the company with Samuel Crim with the work of the dered him exceedingly jealous, and finally he acted in such a manner as to those who saw him to believe he was deranged. The Panama Star thus narrates ranged. The Panama Star thus narrates the tracedy thatensued:

Ty civil law and every disease of Avery, reading a citizen believe he was developed by the company with Samuel Cam with a line look of horses for the California market.—
We understand that Mr. Strazgon was very successful in the gold region and returns richly rewarded.

This, sir.'

His hand.

"Here, my boy, take this morning,' Charles.'
Works—ignoring every law of decency and integrity, by making public money and the pay taxes equally upon what he has not. A Board of public work was accordingly carried on during more than four years, and in that time the left a hundred thousand pounds in the Bank of Pentecos, they boldly charged the Jews with crucifying, by wicked hands, their of the 13th of February, at about 8 of clock in the evening, the passengers were alarmed by shricks from a female voice, which proved to be Susanna Russell, who ran about the after-deck, crying 'my broth or has killed mel' and falling upon the deck in five minutes she was a corpse. She had in five minutes she was a corpse were and in that time the substance of the state of the first and second store that the she was a corpse work as a cord in that time the should be first and second store the possible to celebrate the substance of the first and second store the substance of the first and second store the substance of the first and second store the possible to celebrate the substance of the first and second store the substance of the first and were taken violently ill after dinner. It been but a few minutes she was a corpse. She had been but a few minutes previous to that sitting in the cabin, engaged in a lively conversation with one of the passengers, when Avery called her on deck. On approaching her, and they passing a crow-bar to furnish such estimates and information as the money. Then he bounded away to five months later, willingly gave his daughter to him that they would do all in their power to furnish such estimates and information as to the counting-room and took a receipt for detailed her of the money. Then he bounded away to five months later, willingly gave his daughter to him, who, 3 years previously he would enable the General Assembly to see what amount car willingly gave his daughter to him, who, 3 years previously he would make the retraced his steps. The same again — by passing a crow-bar to furnish such estimates and information as to the counting-room and took a receipt for detail the former was subsequently ascertained that they had to the counting-room and took a receipt for detail the money. Then he bounded away to five months later, willingly gave his daughter to him, who, 3 years previously he would make the first the progress and condition of the work, and their several to furnish such estimates and information as to the counting-room and took a receipt for detail the former to ward the restoration of his property—and five months later, willingly gave his daughter to him, who, 3 years previously he would make the first to furnish such estimates and information as the form the dead. Forgetful of their former to ward the restoration of his property—and to furnish such estimates and information as the form the dead. Forgetful of the money. Then he bounded away to five months later, willingly gave his daughter to him the dead. Forgetful of the former to five months are to five months and the former to furnish such estimates and information of his property—and to five months are to five months and the five money. The five months stranger over and over again before they for house rent. The wheel of fortune had to teach and preach the gospel. Nor did stone to which stranger over and over again below the raised by the raised by the seated themselves at the table to partake of turned. Those that were poor were made they teach in vain. Nor was their preaching confined to Jerusalem. Samaria heard the word and there was great joy in that Mone Infernal Machines.—In the Lon- word. It went forth beyond Judea and don correspondence of the National Intelli- Galilee and Samaria. In loss than twenty years the gospel of the risen Jesus was pro-"The Naval and Millitary Gazette has a claimed in the proudest cities of the civildismal account of an infernal instrument of ized world. Its teachers had seized on all no time to sit; I merely called to know if warfare in the possession of the Czar. I the great points of influence, and were your sister would be a half-dozen handyour sister would hem a half-dozen hand- have had rumors of it before, but it never nations. The gospel was heard to lift received any specific embodiment until it its voice in the very presence of Diana of the Ephesians-it reclaimed many in li-"The inventer of the infernal submar- centious Corinth-it was known and its us. May I ask your name-and where we line machines, stated to be in the possession power felt in the the very presence of the of the Emperor of Russia, for blowing ships Roman Emperor. Its converts had borne it to India, Ethiopia, and perhaps to Spain. And never vainly. Wherever the cross of him that had been esteemed a crucified malefactor was proclaimed, men forgot their sacrifices, forgot their idols, forsook their temples, and gathered about that cross to bow to him who hung upon it as their Lord and Master. What meaneth all this? Is this mighty revolution the work of the fishermen of Galilee? Look for a reply, back to that hour when the disciples were assembled with one accord in one place .-

> A teligraphic dispatch was immedito us simultaneously from England, on the heard it from very good authority, but of fact was vouchsafed these two extreme range destructive inventions must be received with all due caution."
>
> We had previously published a statement from a San Francisco paper, substantially establishing the fact, that the Russian ticulars, but adding the most positive assu-

Remember that mysterious wind that shook the house, that mysterious influence that rested upon them. They went forth commissioned by the Holy Ghost! It is not to others than Legislators and Politicians. nor anywhere else indeed in the civilized world, was prepared to receive so early, we Another evening came, and the young is an old woman of about sixty years of age, whom a poor widow of Hennicker, N. H. of a very withered appearance, and very had given a power of Attorney to collect like a Gipsy. As she passed through the $6000 due her from the railroad as a comlord entered the house to collect his rent.— like a Gipsy. As she passed through the pensation for the loss of her husband and When he received his money he enquired capital last week, seated on horseback like child in the Norwalk catastrophe, has absconded with the money. Aman in Camden, N. J., whose this, for the East, most astonishing phe-nomenon, and eagerly pressed forward to thioves, drugged a bottle of liquor, and